The Power of Love
An undeniable concrete and cosmic/divine force that compels us to speak and demonstrate actions that (should) reveal our response to the reality that we are cared for, forgiven, listened to, taken seriously, thought of, thought about, considered, valued, affirmed, supported, connected, desired and even claimed etc…
Tell me three words you would use to describe yourself and then provide three words others would use to describe you.
1. A willingness to sacrifice pleasure for purpose or the pursuit of purpose.

2. A willingness to tell yourself (and listen) the truth.

3. A willingness to deal with being misunderstood.

4. A willingness to rehearse divine speak/utterance and blessing over yourself and others.
Rev 12:11- “I am an overcomer and am overcome by the blood.”

James 4:7- “I am submitted to God and the devil flees from me because I resist in the name of Jesus.”

James 1:22- “I am a doer of the Word of God and am blessed in my deeds.”

Eph 6:16- “I take the shield of faith and I quench every fiery dart that the wicked one brings against me.”

“Beloved” – The language used when addressing someone. The language used focuses on identity, dignity and personhood. Tone and Word Choice.

(7B) Our actions of love towards others is an outward manifestation of our acceptance of and proximation to God’s love towards and for us.

(7C) Love towards others reveals the reality of how we understand the divine parental relationship. (born & reborn)
Continued behavior that does not reflect God’s loving character/nature is a representation of something that is toxic and detrimental. (Anti-Christ)

“Racism is not a distraction it is public policy.”
Andre Perry
There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

Fear—Phobos
Our love is in response to the divine love shown (have we felt it and nurtured it)? Personally and Communally.
If the love is manifested in hateful/filled acts, laws and language then it does not represent/reflect God’s character which is love!

Love of country can exceed genuine love for Christ and those called according to his name!
Godly love requires us (if we claim to love the lord) to engage in corresponding actions (e.g. sacrifice, patience, truth-telling, kindness, public honor etc.) that spread that love among each other. Hebrews 10:23-24
