Dear Representative (or Senator),

As your constituent, I am writing today to urge you to support humane and comprehensive immigration reform policy that provides hard-working immigrants with a pathway to earning citizenship, protects families and the most vulnerable members of our society, and respects the rights of workers and border communities. Congress must work to fix the broken immigration system.

The current system is not only broken but unjust. The crisis at the border has escalated into a humanitarian crisis. Families being torn apart, children dying, lack of access to basic hygiene, and the caging of human beings is inhumane. Congress must address these issues! Fixing the broken immigration system is particularly important to me because [include a personal story or share what inspired you to write this letter, or what your faith call on you to do].

Therefore, I urge you to support humane and comprehensive immigration reform and support H.R. 1069 / S. 397 that calls for an end to detention centers.

Sincerely,
